

CASSIDY ALEXA

Cassidy Alexa is a musician, poet, actress, and ballerina. She attended Canada's National ballet school, before going on to dance professionally as a principal with Cadence Ballet.

Cassidy has starred in both film and TV. Her favourite directors are Fellini, Kubrick, and David Lynch. She has a number of films in post production, and is gearing up for the lead role in a feature film noir to be shot in San Fransisco.

With deep Irish roots, Cassidy has always been mesmerized by the poetic soul; inspired by the likes of James Joyce, William Blake, and Seamus Heaney. After writing poetry all her life, she decided these poems were meant to be sung, and recorded her first song at the end of 2020, before signing with MyTone records.

Cassidy is most at home singing the blues, jazz, and rock and roll; tending towards the darker motifs. Her influences include Tom Waits, Muddy Waters, Ottis Redding, Elvis Presley, The Rolling Stones, Jim Morrison, Screamin' Jay Hawkins, Prokofiev, Janis Joplin, Frank Sinatra, Roy Orbison, and Billie Holiday.

Cassidy is beyond thrilled to announce the release of her first single, 'Blood in The Summer,' in the summer of 2021, and is currently recording her first album with MyTone Records.
