BIOGRAPHY

Courtney Hunt's sweet yet powerful voice and expressive songwriting capture her sincere love of music and have garnered her much attention. Growing up in a family of musicians, she found herself performing in songwriter showcases, and eventually entering and emerging as the champion of a vocal competition at the internationally renowned Cloverdale Rodeo and Fair.

In 2018 she became the frontwoman of the band Appaloosa performing and touring across Western Canada. A year later, she also joined the rosters of corporate international bands Side One and Ten Souljers. She has performed at The Rockin' River Music Festival, Armstrong IPE, Smithers Fall Fair, The BCNE and many more private and club venues. Her captivating performances and powerful vocals make her a natural entertainer.

NOTABLE REFERENCES

"I met Courtney at a music festival and thought she was a cool character. Then she went on stage. A powerful, confident performer that let me know she had the 'gift' of music in spades!"

—TOM MCKILLIP Producer/Musician

"Do you know what I love the most about this girl? She never gives up. She's always writing, always playing, always being seen, always being heard, and that's how great artists are made."

—KAREN LEE BATTEN 7 time BCCMA Female Vocalist of the Year

"Courtney's passion for music is evident from the first note you hear her sing. A smooth natural vocal delivery and a solid ability to play guitar is a treat to listen to. Her auspicious future in the music biz is sure to be a wild ride."

—MITCH MERRETT Producer/Record Label Executive

"Courtney's stage presence was matched only by her vocal talent...Her lead vocals are exceptional, but she has also has an inherent, natural ability with backing vocal harmonies."

—MARTIN ROBSON Ten Souljers

"What sticks out to me most besides her musical talent is her big heart, positivity and willingness to always learn. Courtney is charming, well spoken, super funny and she's got that onstage performer swag ... You can't keep your eyes off of her!"

—DJ PRI International DJ
